14. Termination for Default

- The Purchaser, may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default, sent to the Contractor, terminate this contract in whole or in part. If the contractor fails to deliver any or all the goods within the time period (s) Specified in the contract, or any extension thereof granted by the Purchaser
- If the Contractor fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract;
- If the Contractor, in the judgment of the Purchaser has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the Contract.

- If the Contractor, in either of the above circumstances, does not remedy his failure within a period of 15 days (or such longer period as the Purchaser may authorize in writing) after receipt of the default notice from the Purchaser.
- On a notice period of 30 days. For the purpose of this Clause:
- "Corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.
- "Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of Borrower, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the Borrower of the benefits of free and open competition".
- In the event the Purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part pursuant to above paragraph the Purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods similar to those undelivered and the Contractor shall be liable to the Purchaser for any excess cost for such similar goods. However, the Contractor shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

15. Claims:

- If the material supplied are found to be off size and shape different than those in the accepted offer and are of specifications lower than those stipulated in the accepted offer, Council shall have the right to totally reject the goods and/or to prefer a claim for compensation for the part of goods, which are rejected.
- The contractor shall reimburse to Council, the actual expenditure incurred, on such goods, within 15 (fifteen) days of its demand.
